| You, my friend, have what it takes to become a critical care nurse! Your curious mind and great collaboration skills makes you perfect for this specialisation. Critical care nursing is deeply fulfilling work. You’ll touch people’s lives in ways that will stay with them forever. | They say variety is the spice of life, and as an urgent care nurse no two workdays will look the same. Your social nature, and ability to think on your feet make you an ideal fit for frontline, fast-paced healthcare. A speciality like urgent care community nursing has your name written all over it! | Your kind and loving nature makes you perfect for burns and plastic surgery nursing! In this specialisation, you’ll help patients find confidence in their appearance – so they can move forward in their lives with bodies that reflect how they feel on the inside. | “Paging nurses to ED”... (that could be you!). As an emergency department nurse you’ll get stuck in and find solutions to the trickiest of problems. You’ll be right at the heart of the emergency room, offering calm, quick-thinking care in times of need. | Young or old, you're there for the people who need it most. You're a social butterfly with a zen vibe – which is the perfect combo for aged care or youth health nursing! In this specialisation, your warm smile will be a huge asset as you offer kaumātua or tamariki care and connection. | Shout out to you and your calm and confident vibe! You're unflappable – which makes you perfect for mental health or sexual health nursing. In these specialisations you'll offer supportive, non-judgemental healthcare to all who walk through your door. |
