Plot your daughter's height centile on the pink lines; the black numbers show average female adult height for this centile; four out of five will be within 6 cm above or below this value.